tinued absence of demand in volume for the actual and lack of prospect for weather that will put an end to making of late cotton were having cumulative effect on values. Prices in the contract barks throke rather sharply and made new lows for the movement without attracting much resistance. The expected relection of the German note by Provided Wilson was given be some as occasion for the fresh liquidation, but this hardly fit is with some of the recent claims that coming of peace would have bearish effect. He continued war were regarded as bearish, although the reason, of chirac penings seem to show that either peace or continued war were regarded as bearish, although the reason, of chirac penings seem to show that either peace of continued war were regarded as bearish, although the reason, of chirac penings seem to show that either peace of continued war were regarded as bearish, although the reason, of chirac penings seem to show that either peace of continued war were regarded as bearish, although the reason, of chirac penings seem to show that either peace of continued to the season of consequence duries that the continued to the pening of the season. Liverpool was not highly as had as expected, finishing steady at 2 points to the had, goed middling at 2-bind, with hads 2-bin hades 2-b ing from the beit to encourage having, as sports were very quiet and than a divisor told of offerings being made a compessions. Hears also were contained in the censur ginning report Firthus to help that side, as well as the weekly statistics, the result being a dip of December to New York from 27-75 to the opening call to 28-55c. But title thange came for a time, until the storm warming came, when the option sold up to 28-55c after which more pressure was exerted. The unofficial advices that the peace note requesting an armistice had been or would be refeted perhaps helped to the selling as did lower spot unotations in the belt December sold off to 29-225 in the afternoon and little support was given at the lower level.

No special demand came to late trading and nives were the lowest of the session and near the bottom at the finish.
